

ACADEMIC LIFE IN THE 1930s

DID YOU KNOW?

- Students were required to read at least 20 books from a reading list and to pass an examination about them before they could receive an A.A. degree?
- The first college preparatory course, called “Sub-Freshman Composition,” began in 1939?
- Members from civic clubs throughout Palm Beach County were instrumental in opening a junior college and formed the first advisory committee for PBJC?
- Industrial arts courses were introduced in the 1930s?
- The first schedules had classes offered on Monday, Wednesday & Friday and Tuesday, Thursday & Saturday?
- The College’s first curriculum and faculty were approved by the University of Florida?
- In the 1930s two curricula were offered: Associate of Arts (64 credit hours) and Certificate of Graduation (60 credit hour)?
- An orchestra was formed in 1937?